

The logo features a large, stylized 'i' in red with a red dot above it. To its right, the word 'Grid' is written in a large, black, sans-serif font. Further right, the year '2005' is written in the same black, sans-serif font. A horizontal orange-to-white gradient bar passes behind the 'Grid' and '2005' text. The background consists of a large, light-orange, semi-transparent shape that resembles a stylized 'i' or a lens flare, pointing towards the right.
